

Soul Winning With The Sealy's

August 2014

Dear Partners:

It seems like there are so many choices today. I walk down the aisle in the grocery stores and there are so many brands of the same product. It reminds me of the following story:

British Prime Minister Herbert Asquith once spent a weekend at the Waddesdon estate of the 19th-century Rothschild family. One day, as Asquith was being waited on at tea time by the butler, the following conversation ensued: "Tea, coffee, or a peach from off the wall, sir?"

"Tea, please," answered Asquith.

"China, India, or Ceylon, sir?" asked the butler.

"China, please."

"Lemon, milk, or cream, sir?"

"Milk, please," replied Asquith.

"Jersey, Hereford, or Shorthorn, sir?" asked the butler.

Jesus said "I am the way the truth and the life." There are no other choices that will guarantee the destination of my soul. What is my choice?

NEWS FROM THE ROAD

1. We returned home from the northern part of Quebec from our work with our precious native people. Souls were saved. I have had to send Bibles back to some of the teens.
2. We spoke at the Vacation Bible School at Belleville Baptist Church. We saw precious children come to faith in Christ.
3. I had the joy of speaking at Bradford Baptist Church. Pastor Don Booker had been seriously ill and God raised him back up to health. This church has been such a big part of our lives for many years.
4. We started a Bible study in Moncton, NB on Wednesday nights. The study has borne fruit with the first convert. I believe this man will be an evangelist. Praise the Lord.

5. I began marriage counselling for a young couple who desire to get married.
6. Please pray for upcoming meetings in New Hampshire before we fly to western Canada for some family time. While there my son Matt and I will write a Christmas program based on my song "The Gift". Some of you might remember this as "A Piece of Jimmies hair." The church of the Open Bible might possibly use this as their Christmas program. There has been some talk over the years about this song being used in a movie. Our son Chris has also contributed to the writing.
7. I had a battle with kidneys stones and I won the war after a painful battle, which lasted about a week. One should get a high quality diamond after such pain. All I got was this black stone, which will never make the jewellery stores.

Thanks for all your encouragement and support of what we are doing. As the world grows darker the burden increases. We could never do this without your help. E-Mail us at further@aernet.ca or check us out on Facebook. You can also check with Eloise, our administrative assistant, in regards to giving or address changes. Her email is furtheranceoff@gmail.com .

Keeping on keeping on for Christ,

Ed & Theresa Sealy
